Declaration of ASI as Scientific and Technical Department

95. SHRIMATI MOHSINA KIDWAI:
SHRI VIJAY. J. DARDA:

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) when was the notification declaring the Archaeological Survey of India a Scientific and Technical Department issued by Government;

(b) what are the financial and administrative implications of declaring a Department as Scientific and Technical;

(c) whether the benefit and privileges of a Scientific and Technical Department have been fully extended to the Archaeological Survey of India, and if not, the reasons therefor; and

(d) by when the Archaeological Survey of India is likely to get all the benefits and privileges of a Scientific and Technical Department?

THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI AMBIKASONI): (a) to (d) The Department of Science and Technology has approved the Archaeological Survey of India as a Science & Technological Institution w.e.f 1st May 1989 vide Notification of Ministry of Human Resource Development, Department of Culture dated 27.10.1989.

The financial and administrative implications of declaring a Department as scientific and technical and their present status in the ASI are as follows:

(i) Financial powers of Ministries/Departments can be delegated to Head of Science & Technology Institution.

Ministry of Culture has issued order revising financial powers of Director General, ASI.

(ii) Secretary of administrative Ministry can chair EFC for projects of Science & Technology Departments irrespective of outlay.

(iii) Science & Technology Institutions are exempted from purview of DGS&D for purchase of store subject to the condition that these institutions should have evolved alternative procedure.

After issue of new GFR 2005—procedure for purchase has been simplified and no separate purchase procedure for ASI is therefore necessary.

(iv) S&T institutions with substantial civil work can have Civil Engineering wing of their own.

ASI already has a Conservation Branch consisting of Civil Engineers.

(v) Recruitment to scientific and technical posts in S&T Departments can be exempted from the purview of UPSC.

This is not implemented in the ASI. UPSC/Department of Personnel & Training has not agreed to this.

(vi) Head of Department of S&T Department shall have powers to sanction deputation abroad/international travel to scientists working under their control.

No officer of the ASI has been designated as Scientist.

(vii) The officers of Science and Technology Department are entitled to the Flexible Complementing Scheme.

The grant of Flexible Complementing Scheme to the eligible officers of ASI is being pursued with the Ministry of Science and Technology and Ministry of Personnel.
